

TWO X

P R A Y E R S

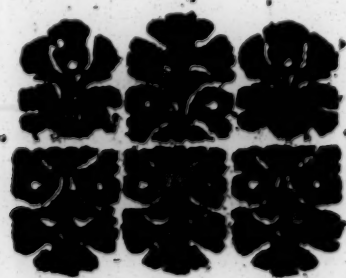

TO BE

Taught unto Children at School;

Which also may be used in Families,

The singular number being turned into the plurall.

Together vvith a form of Blessing God, before, and after, meat.

EDINBURGH,

Printed for John Mason, 1672.

Morning Prayer.

O God, I praise thee, for the creation of the World, and for the Redemption of mankind by the Lord Jesus, and for thy many favours bestowed on me: Thou didst safely take me from the womb, and hast ever since cared for me: thou hast by thy mercie caused me to be born within thy Church, where I was early given to thee in baptism: thou hast afforded me the means of grace, and called me to the hope of glory.

But, O most mercifull Father, I am a poor and miserable sinner, conceived in sin, and brought forth in iniquity: I have gone astray from thee: I have no car cared to know thee, and do thy will but have done mine own will, and followed my foolish and sinfull inclinations; and do therefore deserve thy wrath and curse.

a- O Lord, have mercy upon me: turn e- me unto thee, and grant me repentance, is, and forgiveness of all my sins for Jesus on sake: Let it from henceforth become my b- chiefest care to please thee, and to seek thy ne kingdom and righteousness: worke in b- me a true faith, a lively hope, and a fer-va- vent charitie: make me humble, meek, h- patient, sober and just, kind and loving to cal all men, submissive and obedient to them that are over me, and well content and , thankfull in every condition of life: e- grant that I may dayly grow in knowing, nit loving, fearing, and obeying thee: Creat e in me a clean heart, O God, and renew can right spirit within me. I I thank thee, O Lord, for thy care of me this night; watch over me this day keep me mindfull that I am alwayes in thy sight, that I may be in thy fear all the day long; and grant that through the whole course of my life, I may be holy and harmlesse in all manner of conversation that when this short and frail life is at an end, I may be made partaker of e verlasting life, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose name and words I pray Our Father which art in Heaven, &c.

Evening Prayer.

Most Gracious God, What shall I render unto thee for thy many and great benefits bestowed on me Though I have been an undutifull and dis

disobedient servant to thee, thou hast continued thy care and kindnesse for me ever since I was born, and hast preserved me this day: let me never forget thy goodnesse, but grant that thereby I may be led to Repentance and amendment of life. Preserve me from every thing that is displeasing to thee: O Lord, keep me from cursing, swearing and lying, from pride, stubbornnesse, and idle-nesse; worke in me an utter dislike of all uncleannesse, of gluttony and drun-kennesse, of malice and envy, of strife and contention, of deceit and covetousnesse: give me grace to deny all ungodlinesse and worldly lusts, and to live godly, righteously and soberly in this present world: cause me to understand and consider the laws and life of Jesus, that I may may do his will, and follow his steps: let never the cares of this life, nor the love of riches, nor evil company, nor the corrupt customs of the world withdraw me from the obedience of thy laws; but strengthen and establish me by thy holy Spirit, that I may live and die thy faithfull servant.

O Lord, send thy Gospel through the world: poure out plentifully the Spirit of truth, holinesse and peace on all thy people. Blesse this Church and Kingdom; preserve the King, the Queen, and all the Royall Familie: guide our Judges and Magistrates: sanctifie and assist the Ministers of the Gospel: Visit all that are in trouble, and sanctifie their afflictions to them: be gracious to all my kindred, friends and neighbours, and blesse and forgive all mine enemies.

Lord,

let Lord, watch over me this night, and keep me ever mindfull that I am shortly to die, and come to Judgement, that I may without delay turn to thee, and emasse the time of my sojourning here in at fear. Good Lord, bear me, and grant these my desires, and what else thou knowest to be needfull for me, for the sake of Jesus, in whose name and words by I pray, Our Father, &c.

Grace before Meat.

O Lord, be mercifull to us, and pardon our sins: sanctify these thy good benefits, that we, by the sober and thankful use of them, may be enabled for thy service, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour Amen. Grac

Grace after meat.

WE thank and praise thee, Lord, the giver of all good, who hast at this time fed our bodies, stir up in us a greater care for our souls, and grant that our short lives, which are so carefully sustained by thy bounty, may be spent in doing thy will: lead us safely through this vain and sinfull world, in which we are pilgrims and strangers, and length bring us to everlasting rest through Jesus Christ. Amen.

F I N I S ee, l oo

die

ou

ve

d b oin

thi

w d a

ef

